Formula Kart Productions, Inc. announced today the tentative dates, venues and classes for the 2006 Formula Kart Racing Florida Winter Tour.

Formula Kart's Bill Wright ; "As always, we are releasing tentative information in August, for participant comment, and as always we'll follow up this tentative info with Official info in October. This year, more than any other, it is very important that potential participants contact us with comments. In addition to trying to assure we don't have any date conflicts, I am making some tough decisions about classes this year, and I need to hear from our participants before I make the official decisions in October."

The 8th annual edition of the FL Winter Tour will continue with the popular and cost-effective 3 event-weekend, 6 race-day format, with qualifying, pre-final and finals for all classes on both Saturday and Sunday. It's sure to be " SERIOUS FUN ! " .
